

'Sales Mean Jobs' Drive Is Started At Meeting Today

Committee of Business Leaders Appointed by Mayor to Push Drive Designed to Lessen Unemployment

Mayor's View

Heiselman Tells of Successful Working of Plan in Mid-west City Recently

A city-wide "Sales Mean Jobs" campaign was launched this morning by Mayor C. J. Heiselman in a meeting with a group of representative business men of Kingston in his office in the city hall when the mayor appointed the following committee to have charge of the campaign: Chairman, George R. Reindel; William C. Kingman, Roy M. Sulliff, James L. Rowe, Sam Bernstein, James A. Dwyer, William O'Reilly and Harry B. Walker.

Mayor Heiselman in announcing the launching of the drive said:

"One of the situations growing out of our present economic ills is a lack of buying and of course a consequent lack of sales. This situation has grown on us to the extent that even those who can buy often defer their purchases longer than they normally would.

"This same situation exists in most every community, and as sales decrease so does employment decrease and so also do the relief problems increase. Some communities have tried to solve this problem by a concerted effort to increase sales.

"I am informed that in Nebraska the Kelvintor Company started a crusade with the slogan "SALES MEANS JOBS." The campaign was opened by Governor R. L. Cochran, of Nebraska, and apparently met with success. More recently our upstate neighbor, city of Albany, opened a campaign of "Sales Mean Jobs" and this campaign is still running and I am informed is meeting with success. Such a campaign has for its basic principle the logic behind "Sales Mean Jobs" to awaken the public mind to the necessity of "buying their needs" and the salespeople are urged to meet the need of aggressive merchandising and attractive buys to stimulate sales.

No community is independent, all are interdependent and so also all businesses within a community are, to a certain extent, interdependent.

The principal machinery for the success of such a "Sales Mean Jobs" campaign is the cooperation of all the merchants, business men, and sales people in the community. I feel confident that we can have the necessary cooperation.

Necessarily the organization and planning of such a campaign must be done by volunteers from the business ranks, and I am appointing as a committee to carry out this plan: G. R. Reindel, chairman; William C. Kingman, Roy M. Sulliff, James L. Rowe, Sam Bernstein, William O'Reilly, Harry B. Walker. This committee will have the fullest cooperation of the city administration, and I feel sure the cooperation of every merchant and business man.

United Effort

The committee appointed by the mayor today represents the downtown, central and downtown business sections of the city, and the committee plans to make a united effort to have every business man and woman, and all interested in Kingston take an active part in the campaign.

S. R. O. Sign Out

Cohasset, Mass., July 26 (AP).—Sinclair Lewis' debut as an actor in one of his own plays has put the S. R. O. sign on the door of Cohasset's summer theatre. It was a new triumph for the Nobel Prize winning novelist who chose the role of the small town Vermont editor in "It Can't Happen Here" for his initial appearance last night as a professional actor. The town hall was packed, applause was generous and the critics were kind.

Ascends Mt. Sanford

Christochina, Alaska, July 26 (AP).—Returning to civilization, Bradford Washburn, noted Cambridge, Mass., explorer, today reported the successful ascent of Mt. Sanford, which he described as the highest peak hitherto unclimbed on the North American continent. Washburn reported that, accompanied by Terrence Moore of Los Angeles, he reached the 16,200-foot summit at 9 o'clock the night of July 21.

Woman's Body Recovered

New York, July 26 (AP).—The body of a woman believed to have been Ida Beck, 30, of Jersey City, who fell overboard from the excursion boat Americana during a midnight sail on the Hudson last Friday night, was recovered from the river off 59th street today.

Heiselman Plans Municipal Day to Parade Equipment

Purpose Is to Give Residents Vivid Impression of What City Is Doing to Make Departments Modern

Mayor C. J. Heiselman announced today that he was planning to have a day set aside shortly in Kingston to be known as Municipal Day.

The purpose back of the day is to give the residents of the city a vivid impression of what the city is doing for those who reside within its borders.

The big feature of the day will be a parade in which all of the city equipment will take part. This parade will be staged in the afternoon and in the line of march will be all of the fire equipment of the city, the patrol cars of the police department, the trucks, steam rollers and other equipment of the Board of Public Works, as well as the equipment used by all of the various departments of the city.

The announcement was made at a meeting of representative business men who met with the mayor this morning and launched the Sales Mean Jobs campaign in Kingston.

Those who attended the meeting were enthusiastic over the idea of the parade of municipal equipment and the mayor's suggestion that the commercial and business houses of the city take a part in the parade with a display of their trucks and equipment was met with hearty approval.

Kingston has never had a Municipal Day in its history and for that reason Mayor Heiselman is anxious to make it a big success and to give the people an idea of just what equipment the city owns.

The parade will also feature local industry and business in the city, and it is expected that the business houses of the city will declare a half holiday so that the employees may take part in the parade.

The day will be set aside as a public holiday in Kingston.

3 Men Held at Poughkeepsie On Counterfeit Bill Charge

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 26 (AP).—Three men are being held by Poughkeepsie police for a hearing today before U. S. Commissioner Isaac Pratt on a charge of passing and possessing counterfeit bills.

The trio described themselves as Thomas Luzzio, 21, 12 Seigel street, Rochester, and Joseph Sultila, 17, 416 Walnut street, and Anthony Bednarczyk, 19, 27 Center street, both of Yonkers.

They were arrested in Peekskill yesterday by Patrolman Arthur Frost after state police broadcast a description of the license number of the automobile in which they were riding.

The alarm was sent out after three Poughkeepsie merchants complained of receiving counterfeit $10 bills. A search of the automobile's contents at Peekskill revealed, Patrolman Frost said, 13 counterfeit $10 bills in two containers.

Morgan Gets Reduction

Glen Cove, N. Y., July 26 (AP).—J. P. Morgan, who joined other leading citizens in a protest against increased property taxes last year, won a reduction in his assessments for 1938-39, the opening of the rolls disclosed yesterday. Morgan remains, however, the town's largest taxpayer.

His holdings were assessed at $558,830, as compared to $1,325,170 a year ago. The assessor, Lynn B. Hammond, said he could not detail the reductions nor say why they were made.

Treasury Receipts

Washington, July 26 (AP).—Position of the treasury July 23: Receipts $9,935,453.43; expenditures $26,393,699.55; net balance $2,123,139,270.14, including $1,651,747,679.65 working balance. $51,058,919. Receipts for the month fiscal year (since July 1), $236,615,310.69; expenditures $626,045,164.53, including $160,449,605.70 of emergency expenditures; excess of expenditures $389,429,857.84; gross debt $37,114,643,654.66, a decrease of $1,065,712.43 below previous day; gold assets $12,997,712.21.

Two Steamers Collide

Boston, July 26 (AP).—Coast guard headquarters today reported two steamers collided off Hull this morning, near the harbor entrance, but said there was no further information available immediately. Cutters from the Pemberton station went to the scene.

Political Trades Begin

American Labor Party Announces Alliance With Republicans to Elect State Assembly and Senate Candidates and Says "It's Only Genuine New Deal Party"

New York, July 26 (AP).—A scrambling of conventional party names and a realignment of political power in New York city on a pro and anti-New Deal basis for the fall elections seemed possible today as the result of trading negotiations between several factions.

Refused by the Democratic organization, the Young American Labor Party announced an alliance with the Republicans to elect state assembly and senate candidates, while reaffirming its claim to being "the only genuine New Deal Party" here.

While Republican leaders toyed with the notion of supporting Representative John J. O'Connor, already designated by Tammany Hall for reelection to congress, young Byrnes MacDonald yesterday announced his candidacy for O'Connor's seat, with the endorsement of Mayor La Guardia, wholehearted New Dealer and labor party member.

American Labor Party support for MacDonald is "probable," said Alex Rose, state executive secretary, who also announced that the party had formed a coalition with the Republicans on candidates in 17 assembly districts and four senatorial districts in Brooklyn.

Extension of the alliance to 12 assembly and senate districts in Manhattan, longtime center of Democratic power, was planned. "We will only make a coalition with the Republicans where we can be assured that the Republican nominees will be progressives," said Rose. He accused the Democratic machine of sacrificing state and national objectives to a desire to retain control of the city administration.

A Republican endorsement for O'Connor, chairman of the House Rules Committee and opponent of the President's reorganization bill, was forestalled temporarily when Republican election district leaders voted 31-to-29 against it after an angry debate.

However, Louis Davis Hopkins, sponsor of the Back-O'Connor movement, withdrew from the conference, saying he would not be bound by it, and O'Connor petitions continued to circulate among 16th District Republicans.

Unique in the day's developments was a Republican endorsement of a Republican -- the Brooklyn Young Republican Club's declaration for Senator Thomas C. Desmond for Governor.

Poughkeepsie Reds Hold Only Program On Historic Date

Poughkeepsie, N. Y., July 26 (AP).—The Communist Party of President Roosevelt's home county took charge today of what is believed to be the only organized observance of the 15th anniversary of New York's ratification of the federal constitution here.

In circulars spread throughout Dutchess county, Frank Brooks, Communist county organizer and others of the party, praised Melancthon Smith, Dutchess delegate to the New York convention that ratified the constitution here July 26, 1788, as "a fighter against reactionaries."

The pamphlets announcing today's "open house and speaking program" in Communist headquarters here labeled Representative Hamilton Fish, Dutchess county Republican, as "the personification of Fascism in our country today."

Robert Minor, of the Communist Party's national committee, who claims descent from General John Minor, of the American Revolutionary staff, was listed as the principal speaker, discussing "Communism in 20th Century America."

Poughkeepsie's Democratic mayor, George V. L. Spratt, and other city officials ignored invitations which Brooks said had been sent them to attend the celebration.

A Poughkeepsie committee, headed by Dr. James Baldwin of Vassar college, is arranging for a ratification anniversary observance in the autumn, when the new $300,000 postoffice will be dedicated.

Meanwhile, at Albany, the New York State Constitutional Convention arranged for a brief celebration in the assembly chamber of the State Capitol tonight.

Frederick E. Crane, chief judge of the State Court of Appeals and president of the constitutional convention, is scheduled to speak at tonight's celebration in the capitol.

Four Suspended UAW Officers 'Crash' Meeting

Detroit, July 26 (AP).—Four suspended officers of the United Automobile Workers, whose supporters staged a sit-down demonstration in union headquarters yesterday, were turned away twice from closely guarded office doors this morning before they finally gained admission to their scheduled trial before the UAW executive board.

The board was called to meet at 10:30 a. m. (E.S.T.) for a delayed start of the trial. It was not until half an hour later that the four "defendants" and the four "prosecutors" arrived. Maurice Sugar, their attorney, succeeded in convincing the guards posted by Homer Martin that they had "official business" with the board.

More than one hundred supporters of Martin, UAW president whose suspension of the officers precipitated a bitter internal fight in the CIO union, were on guard at the union offices where the trial was to be held.

The executive board began its session, apparently drawing up rules of procedure for the trial, while the "defendants" and their attorney sat in a separate office waiting to be called.

On two elevator trips to the eleventh floor UAW offices, the suspended vice-presidents and their attorney were informed they needed "passes" to enter the union headquarters.

Finally, Maurice Silverman, advertising solicitor of the UAW's

Reds Gain in Big Catalan Drive; Kinkang Captured

Spanish Loyalists Numbering 70,000 Take West Bank of Ebro River—Japs Crack Sino Defensive Today

(By The Associated Press)

The world's two wars were marked today by a Spanish government offensive in southern Catalonia and the capture of Kinkang, important Yangtze river port, by the Japanese.

In Spain, a government army of 70,000 gained a foothold on the west bank of the broad Ebro river, which had been the frontier between insurgent territory and government-held Catalonia since early spring.

The crossing was made in the Asen-Mora de Libro sector, where three columns drove toward Gandesa, regional insurgent headquarters 11 miles west of the Ebro.

The government drive followed withdrawal of many insurgent units from the long-quiet Catalonia front to aid in their offensive against Valencia to the south.

In China, the Japanese announced their troops entered Kinkang this morning after breaking the principal Chinese defense line in the Yangtze valley. Kinkang is 135 miles downriver from Hankow, China's provisional capital.

The Japanese said Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek's troops were retreating to the west and south-west.

All Chinese defenses in the Yangtze valley were wobbling, the Japanese asserted, and "it is only a matter of time until their collapse."

Five persons were killed in Palestine's Arab-Jewish racial warfare in what were believed reprisals for yesterday's bombing that took 47 lives in Haifa.

Marines and police patrolled Haifa in fire engines and trucks in an effort to check further outbreaks.

In London, Prime Minister Chamberlain declared in the House of Commons today, amid cheers, "let no one imagine that though we seek peace we are willing to sacrifice even for peace British honor and British vital interests."

The prime minister was defending his foreign policy in the last debate before a three-months parliamentary recess.

"Our aim is not the less peaceable because no one can imagine we have reason to fear any foe," he declared.

Chamberlain asserted that the armed strength of the country became more formidable day by day and went on:

"But while that tremendous power remained as a guarantee that we could defend ourselves if we were attacked, we were not unmindful of the fact that though it was good to have a giant's strength it was tyrannous to use it."

During the debate the prime minister announced that Viscount Runciman, former cabinet minister, had agreed to become investigator and mediator in the dispute between the Czechoslovak government and its autonomy-seeking German and other minorities.

He said that the former president of the board of trade would work independently of the British government in an effort to solve the problem which was disturbing Europe.

Countess of Warwick Dies

London, July 26 (AP).—Frances, Countess of Warwick, famous hostess of Edwardian days, who startled society by entertaining both royalty and Socialists, died today at her home at Easton Lodge, Dunmow, Essex. She was 76 years old.

Attorneys for Hines said they would oppose Dewey's attempt to obtain a selected panel of 300 nonmen—one of the largest ever asked here—in order to pick a "blue ribbon" jury for the trial.

300 Million Issue Would Put End To State's Slums

Escapes Assassin

Major General Blanton Winthrop (above) governor of Puerto Rico, escaped unharmed from an attempted assassination while reviewing a parade at Ponce. At least 20 persons were injured, some seriously, in the melee which followed.

Kentucky Carries On Probe; Chandler Is Still Suffering

Frankfort, Ky., July 26 (AP).—Kentucky's highway patrol proceeded today with an investigation into the asserted "poisoning" of Governor A. B. (Happy) Chandler.

Major Joe Burman, chief of the State Bureau of Identification, said it was "not the first time such a thing has happened during the campaign." Chandler is waging for the Democratic senatorial nomination against Senator Alben Barkley, senate majority leader.

"We have our suspicions," Major Burman said in pronouncing an investigation "to determine who is responsible for the attempt on the Governor's life."

Chandler, ill since Friday when he was stricken in a Louisville hotel, is the victim of water "doctors" and poison," Dr. J. W. Bryan, his Louisville physician, said in a statement. Dr. Bryan said he did not know what kind of poison it was but added "if consumed in sufficient quantities would have caused death."

Addressing a radio audience from his bedside in the Executive Mansion last night, Chandler said, "in no campaign in recent years has a campaign been so desperate."

He recalled that he had just finished a broadcast from his Louisville hotel suite Friday when "two of my associates and I were stricken with intestinal poisoning."

Dr. Bryan had said previously State Finance Commissioner J. Dan Talbot and State Highway Patrolman Jesse Wyatt "drank from the same pitcher of water" as the Governor and became ill at the same time, but not as seriously.

Dr. Bryan, who identified himself as the house physician of the Louisville Hotel, said he was "of the absolute opinion that somehow and in some way the water which was consumed" by the three men "somehow, somewhere and by someone had been doctored with a poison that would have produced the above symptoms complained of by the three men."

Reporting early this morning after a five-hour investigation, three Louisville city detectives said they could find "no evidence to substantiate" Dr. Bryan's assertion. The detectives, acting under orders of Chief of Detectives Joseph Stewart, were Tom Shouse, James W. Stephenson and Jack Hughes.

Dr. C. W. Bowden, Louisville physician who had been called on on the case, said he "never had any suspicion of poisoning in the case, but added he had "no theory or opinion" and that "no man who has a pain in the stomach might have been poisoned."

Searchability Described

Woods Hole, Mass., July 26 (AP).—The discovery that one small, barely visible water animal can make, in 25 days, more starch and fat than the whole United States could eat, was described today at the Marine Biological Laboratory, summer workshop of American scientists.

The animal, a flagellate, The amount of starch and fat, said Dr. S. O. Masv, of Johns Hopkins University, is theoretically prodigious.

Asks Public Statement

Supreme Court Justice Charles Poletti today called upon the constitutional convention's utilities committee "to state publicly what persuaded, induced or influenced it to kill two power development proposals."

He referred to measures designed to prohibit exploitation of the St. Lawrence and Niagara rivers by private utility companies and to guarantee the right of municipalities to own and operate their own utilities.

"Let us bring the issue into public view," said Judge Poletti, a Democratic delegate and former counsel to Governor Lehman. "As the sponsor of the two proposals, I stand ready to meet in public any argument that may be advanced against the two proposals by delegate or private utility companies."

"I condemn the wicked killing of the two proposals in committee. That wicked killing cannot be a man a secret to the consuming public of this state. The truth will leak out. We will inform the people of the facts so that they may know which delegates and which political party in this convention have again acted in the interests of the entrenched and gigantic utility monopolies."

Governor Lehman is expected to send a message to the convention urging adoption of the measures.

Republican Delegate Baldwin Says New York City Breeds Communism in Lower East Side 'Stinkpots'

Labor Compromise

Measure Setting Forth "Bill of Rights" Would Be Compromised for Debate

Albany, N. Y., July 26 (AP).—Adoption of a proposal to authorize a $300,000,000 state bond issue to raise slums and provide low-cost housing was urged upon the constitutional convention today in behalf of "500,000 people living in stinkpots."

Republican Delegate Joseph C. Baldwin, New York city sponsor of the measure, declared that "the city of New York, on its lower east side is breeding Communism."

Baldwin declared that the problem of adequate housing is "not charity or Socialism but a matter of health protection. I want to protect the bodies of these children as we now protect their minds."

He defended a provision which would permit different rule of compensation for property condemned for housing as compared with that taken for other purposes, asserting it was necessary "to dramatize the problem."

Republican delegate George R. Fearon, Syracuse, urged that "we get rid of the underbrush" by accepting amendments to what necessarily "must be a compromise."

He urged that the "compensation" provision be amended to stipulate the right of review by the courts on awards for condemned property. It now provides that compensation for property taken for new housing and certified by health authorities as unfit for human habitation "shall not exceed the salvage value thereof and the reasonable value of the land."

Earlier, Baldwin had attributed "personal pique" to New York City Park Commissioner Robert Moses, who criticized the proposal as "one of the most worthless and confusing measures proposed at the convention."

A compromise on a measure setting forth a "bill of rights" for labor was offered in New York's constitutional convention today in an effort to have the subject re-opened for debate.

Murray Goodlad, New York city Republican, author of the original measure, said that the amending clause would strike out reference to legality of sit-down strikes, the right of state and municipal employees to strike and "other objectionable features."

The industrial relations committee, which previously had refused to report the proposed amendment for debate, was instructed by President Frederick E. Crane, immediately after submission of Goodlad's "concession," to act upon the measure within 24 hours.

The measure deals broadly with labor's rights to bargain collectively, picket, strike and organize. Debate to bring the measure out of committee brought sharp conflict between Republican and Democratic delegates.

Efforts of Crane to limit debate brought assent from U. S. Senator Robert F. Wagner, Democrat majority leader and author of the National Labor Relations Act, that there was "an attempt to seal my lips."

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

By CLAUDE J. JAGGER

New York, July 26 (AP).—Profit selling hit the Stock Market today and knocked down leaders fractions to more than two points at the worst. After a weak first hour, though, sufficient buying support appeared to cut extreme losses in half in most cases and, near the final hour, there were a few conspicuous gainers.

Deals were speedier in the opening slide. The pace slackened appreciably on the come-back when the ticker tape frequently was late.

Steeles, motors, rubbers, farm implements, rails, coppers and specialties slipped up at the start. One or two aircrafts such as Douglas and Boeing contested the move, and American Telephone ignored the drift with a gain of nearly 3 points. Strength of this bellwether helped, as much as anything else to stem the outward flow. Western Union also leaned forward.

Bonds lacked climbing steam and major commodities pointed lower. Foreign securities markets were irregular.

In arrears the greater part of the time were shares of U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Chrysler, Westinghouse, American Can, General Electric, du Pont, Loew's Eastman Kodak, Goodrich, Sears Roebuck, Caterpillar Tractor, Anaconda, American Smelting, North American, Santa Fe, Great Northern and Texas Corp.

Oliver Farm, among the agricultural implements, recorded an advance of more than a point.

Stock Averages Held Up Monday

Stock averages opened up Monday considerably above Saturday's closing figures and showed a gain throughout the day. However, profit taking toward the close left many issues below the day's highs. Industrials closed at 144.91, a gain for the day of 0.67 point in the Dow-Jones averages; utilities were up slightly, 0.09, to 22.08; rails were off for the day, closing at 20.14, down 0.24 point. Transactions totaled 2,110,000 shares. London market was easier. Commodities were irregular. Wheat was off as much as 1 1/2 cents a bushel. Cotton was off in New York five to eight points. Cocoa, hides and rubber were strong.

With July railroad earnings estimated to be ahead of those shown for June, when a number of roads showed both gross and net operating incomes the best for any month this year, earnings of the carriers for July are expected to be the best of the year. The first 35 roads to report June earnings had total net operating income of $15,422,000. This was 49.5 per cent under the $30,523,000 reported in June 1937, but is a much better showing than was made in May when the decrease was 55.8 per cent over the May 1937 net. In the second week in July grain movement reached the highest total since July 1930 and on the basis of present loadings, some officials now believe that if industrial activity continues to improve freight loadings may go as high as 700,000 cars or better this fall.

The question of wages is prominent just now. Yesterday initial hearings began before the Public Contracts Board which within a few weeks will recommend minimum wages for the steel industry. The CIO, through Philip Murray, chairman, proposed to the board that the minimum wage in the industry be fixed at 62 1/2 cents per hour for common labor in steel plants producing nearly 95 per cent of the industry output. The proposal is seen as aimed at Republic and Bethlehem Steel. Murray charged that these corporations have unjustifiably and unfairly benefited through unfair competition with other steel producers.

Business is also watching the trend of negotiations between rail management and labor over the proposed 15 per cent reduction in wages of railway workers. There are guesses that a reduction of about half that amount will be the final outcome.

As steel operations for this week are scheduled at 37 per cent of capacity, an advance that had been expected, steel scrap sold at $14.50 to $15 a ton at Pittsburgh, another rise of 50 cents a ton.

Price of domestic copper was raised to ten cents a pound, with July sales, so far this month, largest for any month since December, 1936. Copper scrap was up an eighth and wire prices advanced.

The unseasonable and cool weather in May and June, which brought a drop in ice cream sales, is blamed for the reported drop in earnings of National Dairy Products Corp. The company had earnings for the first six months, to June 30, equivalent to 71 cents on common, which compares with 75 cents in the 1937 period.

Lockheed Aircraft Corp. had sales of approximately $4,700,000 for six months ended June 30, which is within ten per cent of the sales for the entire year of 1937. They had unfilled orders on hand June 30 of around $21,300,000 compared with $3,870,000 at the same time a year ago. Large British order a big factor in the situation.

Bethlehem Shipbuilding has unfilled order at the Quincy, Mass., yard totaling $55,746,000. U. S. Gypsum shows net for the June 30 quarter above that of the first three months of the year. Earnings for the first half of the year show net of $2,181,219, compared with $3,401,253 in the first half of 1937.

Consolidated Edison of New York shows earnings for the second quarter of 43 cents a common share, which is slightly under the same period a year ago, when 47 cents a share was earned. General Mills, Inc., largest miller of wheat in the country, producer of trade marked breakfast foods and cattle feeds, reports net profit for the fiscal year ended May 31 of $4,110,631, or $4.17 a common share, vs $4,303,383, or $4.46 a share in the preceding year.

Woodstock Pets Ready for Show

Woodstock, July 26.—Woodstock pets are being groomed for the library fair pet show to be held on Thursday afternoon as one of the principal parts of the fair, and one particularly enjoyed by the children. This year's show will start with a parade of pets, who will then receive their prizes, of such delicacies as bird seed, cat nip and dog biscuit, appropriately awarded, although difficulties arise when giving prizes to the snakes and lizards which may be entered in the show.

Under the leadership of Mrs. Besse Cohn, assisted by Mrs. Gus Schrader, the children will be corralled for the parade, and Miss Betty Browning will oversee the pet handling and prize awarding.

The llamas which created such a sensation in the show last year, will not attend on Thursday, but will send their baby, born this year. The honey bears of last year's show have now outgrown the limits of the pet show, and are too large to feel at ease in public, but a pet calf from their own barnyard will substitute. The llamas are to start at 3 o'clock, marching to the music of Tode Brower, Judson Phillips, Joseph Pollet, Net Thatcher, Konrad Giamer and Michael Petrucci.

Mrs. Floyd Barringer and children of Samsonville were guests Sunday at the home of Mrs. Barringer's mother, Mrs. Bertha Constable.

The aerator, recognized stellar attraction of the Shokan resort, took second place in popularity Sunday when thousands of motorists flocked to view the mighty spectacle of the waters caught at the spillway of the east basin. The water, quite in contrast to previous floods, was perfectly clear, and its descent over the crest and terraced apron of the spillway made a sight well worth seeing.

Cards have been received from Miss Jane Stubley, who is visiting relatives in her native town of Dumfries, Scotland. Mrs. Stubley was accompanied on the European trip by her granddaughter, Miss Jean Spalletta, of New York.

July 31, 1897, terminated a rainy period similar to the spell of extremely wet weather which recently fell upon the resort country. On that day one Shokan farmer drew in three loads of hay that had been bleached by ten days of rain. This week finds many similar cases of farmers with spoiled hay on their hands. James Rutherford, for instance, cut two loads of heavy green oats for fodder last Saturday and is now confronted with the task of getting the hay off the field, despite the fact that it is too badly damaged to make even fair bedding.

Robert Peck, Jr., returned to Shokan Saturday from Buffalo, where he has been visiting relatives for the past two weeks.

Nelson Boice, formerly of Olive, was numbered among the Lake Katrine residents calling in Shokan Friday.

Lyons of Ashokan and Homer Markle, Jr., of Shokan officiated as chairman and clerk, respectively. Delegates named to the county convention were Grant DeSilva, Alva Buley, Sr., Chester Lyons and Dorothy Lyons.

LOST CONTINENT IS FOUND IN MEXICO

Area Was Buried Hundred Million Years Ago.

NEW YORK—Discovery of a "lost continent" in northern Mexico is reported to the Geological Society of America. The area, it is explained, was buried 100,000,000 years ago beneath the sediments of an ancient sea. Indications have also been found of a lost ocean which separated North and South America during the same age.

Evidence of the missing land and sea has been uncovered by Dr. Lewis B. Kellum, associate professor of geology at the University of Michigan and Dr. Ralph Inlay of the museum of paleontology at the University of Michigan. Their studies will be completed this summer in the state of Sonora in northwestern Mexico by Doctor Inlay, who has just been awarded a grant by the society.

As remapped by geologists, the continent has the shape of a bear's paw which points east and projects 250 miles from the southern border of Texas into an ocean which lay in what is now the central part of Mexico.

Get First Clues

Layers of different types of rock, set like leaves of a closed book, each with fossilized marine life, found during previous expeditions, gave geologists the first clues leading to the discovery. A shoreline exposed by erosion in the southern section of the state of Coahuila added valuable information. To geologists, the rock layers are part of a code, each layer representing an age through which the earth passed. The rocks within the area, now crumpled and folded, were traced back to the Permian age.

Locating the shoreline of the lost continent in northwestern Mexico by studying the rock layers on the sides of the gullies, canyons, and gulches cut by erosion is the principal object of Doctor Inlay's 10-week expedition. He will concentrate his research over an area of 8,000 square miles in Sonora between the western and eastern boundaries of Sonora on the east where it is believed the shoreline of the lost continent will be found.

In mapping the outlines of the continent, geologists have placed the shoreline boundary as approximately extending east along northern Sonora and slightly north to a point 75 miles southeast of El Paso, Texas, within the United States.

From this point it is definitely known that the line turns sharply southward across the Rio Grande and through the eastern part of the state of Chihuahua before extending southeast through the state of Durango where bandits held up and robbed the first expedition to the area in 1933. At that time a geologist was slightly wounded and costly scientific equipment stolen.

Trace Shoreline

The continental shoreline executes an about-face in the state of Coahuila at the point of the bear's toe and continues northward into northwestern Coahuila. In turning again to the southeast, the shoreline forms a leaning inverted "V," the right arm of the "V" stopping near the border of the state of Nuevo Leon.

"Although these studies have no direct economic application," says Doctor Inlay, "they are of interest to both petroleum and mining geologists, because of their regional scope and bearing on the nature and reflection in overlying strata of a continental margin, and their possible contribution to knowledge of the factors which control ore deposition."

"In geologic exploration for petroleum, the present trend is toward search for buried shorelines. In southern Coahuila erosion has exposed an old shoreline. This can be examined on the surface over a broad area and its relation to the structure of the enclosing rocks can be seen. Its projection to the northeast beneath overlying strata, may well lead to disclosure of a reservoir in areas where source beds of petroleum interfinger with, or overlie, the shore face."

"In ore prospecting, knowledge of horizons in which ore deposition commonly occurs may be of prime importance. If mineralization has been found to be limited to one or two horizons in the stratigraphic column, accurate mapping of the area will narrow the belt to be intensely prospected."

Mayor Gets Salary Cut

Ottawa, Kans. (AP)—It is going to cost the mayor and the other two city commissioners here approximately $130 for each of the 610 fewer persons the town census shows live here now. The drop in population was from 6,793 persons to 6,183. A state law provides that cities of less than 9,500 population shall pay the mayor $1,000 a year and the commissioners $800. Previously, with the population about 9,500 each drew $1,200.

Ulster Firm Gets Two-Year Contract

The Ulster County Contracting Corporation of Accord, who own and operate a large stone crushing plant at Sawkill, have a two-year contract for excavating humus for a New York city corporation near Oberville.

The work will be under the direct supervision of D. B. Trowbridge, general manager. Mr. Trowbridge has had a broad experience in construction work, having spent six years in the engineering and construction department of the New York state highway department, and 18 years in contracting, and has built as a contractor for the state of New York highways aggregating $2,000,000. Mr. Trowbridge was offered the position of general superintendent on the construction of the Storm King Highway. At that time the Storm King Highway was considered the most difficult piece of highway construction in the United States.

Sense of Touch Determines Change In Muscle Action

Ithaca, July 26.—With the fundamental principle underlying her new self-developed procedure "thinking and emotions influence muscle action," Miss Lula E. Sweigard, instructor at New York University and the Ithaca College summer school, has had remarkable results in improving the technique of athletes in all kinds of sports, including Glenn Cunningham, the famous miler.

Unique in Miss Sweigard's procedure is the fact that she uses her hands at times for two purposes: To direct a person's thinking to a specific area of the body and to determine through the sense of touch whether the desired change is occurring in muscle action. She seems to know almost sooner than the student what he is thinking. Yet her methods are not those of the chiropractor, osteopath or hypnotist, she declares. She has been experimenting with her type of work for nine years, and is considered an authority.

Cunningham showed improvement under Miss Sweigard's direction while he was attending New York University, and she says the Kansan could keep on being a great miler for many years if he continues to carry out the methods demonstrated to him.

Seemingly possessing "X-ray eyes," Miss Sweigard can analyze a person's muscular faults while he is clothed. Through her conversation she appears to perform a mental and physical "operation" while a person is in any position—rest, work or play. Her methods reduce muscle tenseness and produce a use of the body with greater ease in all situations.

The Ithaca College instructor says "if the philosophy and procedure used in the type of work I am trying to advance were accepted and put into use, we would reach heights in attainment we haven't so far, and our active life would last over a longer period of time."

Don't Embarrass Your Friends

Dick thought he'd found the only girl in the world when he met Evelyn that day at the beach. Naturally, he wanted her to meet his mother.

Poor Evelyn! She is so anxious to make a good impression that she is overplaying her part. Trying to appear nonchalant and at home, she has perched herself on the edge of her chair, legs crossed, skirt above her knees.

She is laughing and talking self-consciously, at the same time rudely pointing. As a last straw, when tea is served, she lifts her cup with an exaggeratedly curled little finger.

No wonder Dick looks miserable and his mother shocked. Why can't Evelyn relax in her chair, feet modestly crossed, skirt in place?

Why doesn't she let the older woman guide the conversation? Why doesn't she wait till she and Dick are alone before using his pet name? Why does she giggle and flutter her hands nervously?

For police, know the rules. Be sure of your etiquette. Our 32-page booklet tells what's expected of you on all occasions, visiting, dancing, traveling.

Send 25c in coins for your copy "ETIQUETTE FOR ALL OCCASIONS" to Kingston Daily Freeman, Home Service, 635 Sixth Ave., New York, N. Y. Be sure to write plainly your NAME, ADDRESS and the NAME of booklet.

Jerry—Did you hear about the accident my brother had? He fell against the piano and hit his head.

Samuel—That's certainly too bad. Did he hurt himself?

Jerry—Oh, no; not much. You see he only hit the soft pedal.

Friend—I know a man who looks so much like you that one could not hardly tell you apart.

Man—You haven't paid him that $10 I lent you three months ago, have you?

It is better to write your love letters when you can put your soul into them. Still they are written sometimes during office hours as the following shows:

Dear Sir: Received yours of the 10th.

And want to thank you for the offer that you made us. We are anxious to hear more. Please write us all the details and we'll hasten to reply.

(Of course I love you, darling. But the boss was passing by).

Every pride of achievement may be carried too far.

Dictator (to his chief lieutenant)—There's something odd about you this morning. Yes, I know what it is. For the first time since I've known you, you've left off your medals.

Lieutenant (looking down at his chest)—Great Scott! I forgot to take them off my pajamas.

Read It or Not

When Abraham Lincoln took office, five ex-presidents were living... a greater number than at any other period in history. They were: Martin Van Buren, John Tyler, Millard Fillmore, Franklin Pierce and James Buchanan. No President elected between 1836 and 1860 had served more than four years, and this made the situation possible.

The chances are that the boy who got a piece:

A little boy called on his aunt who lives next door.

Boy—Hello, Aunt Sue! It's a nice day. (After a minute's embarrassed pause)—Aunt Sue, I smell something that seems like pie with raisins in it.

Aunt Sue—Yes, Junior, I have some mince pie, but they're for company.

Boy (pondering this carefully and then suggesting hopefully)—I came to make a little bit of a visit myself.

Is the fellow who needs advice himself who hands it out to everybody.

The midday whistle had blown when Murphy shouted:

Murphy—Has anyone seen my vest?

Pat—Sure, Murphy, and you've got it.

Murphy (crying solemnly at his bosom)—Right and I have, and it's a good thing you seen it or I'd have gone home without it.

Legion Clambake Sunday Afternoon

The Kingston Post No. 150, of the American Legion, the auxiliary and friends, will gather on Sunday afternoon at Herman's Grove on the Kingston-Rosendale road to greet the newly elected officers at a gala clambake.

GOOD NEWS!

THERE'S bad news around these days—but there are bright spots, too! People are out of work—but many; many more have steady jobs. Some businesses have been hard hit—but others are going ahead, selling more goods this year than last.

Among our own clients is notable proof of this.
In each of the businesses listed below, sales are actually ahead of a year ago.

Kellogg's All-Bran... "You will be pleased to know that sales for the first quarter of 1938 show a satisfactory increase over last year." W. K. Kellogg, President, Kellogg Company, Battle Creek, Michigan.

Quaker State Motor Oil... "Sales this Spring are well ahead of those a year ago." Samuel Messer, Vice-President, Quaker State Oil Refining Corporation, Oil City, Pennsylvania.

Knox Gelatine... "Each month of 1938 sales of Knox Gelatine have been running ahead of last year. There is every indication that these increases will continue." James E. Knox, Vice-President and General Manager, Charles B. Knox Gelatine Co., Inc., Johnstown, New York.

Spud Cigarettes (in Canada)... "First quarter sales of Spud Cigarettes are 21% ahead of the first quarter last year—and this is on top of a 40% increase over the year before." A. C. Picard, Managing Director, Rock City Tobacco Company, Ltd., Quebec, Canada.

Mueller's Macaroni... "First-quarter sales of Mueller's macaroni products are 12% ahead of last year. They have been growing almost steadily since February 1937." Henry Mueller, President, C. F. Mueller Co., Jersey City, New Jersey.

Bar Association Turns Over Floor to Groups at Convention

Cleveland, July 26 (AP)—The American Bar Association turned the rostrum over to its committees today, leaving a controversy with the securities and exchange commission and a resolution on the appointment of Supreme Court Justice Hugo L. Black hanging fire.

Committees opened discussion on a variety of topics ranging from the collection of dues to the "liability of owners, landlords and tenants to invitees, licensees and trespassers."

Commissioner Jerome E. Frank of the SEC questioned the fairness of a report on administrative law by a committee headed by Dean Emeritus Roscoe Pound of Harvard Law School and asserted the committee had "defamed" Commission Chairman William O. Douglas.

The committee mentioned SEC in a discussion of a "tendency to make decisions on the basis of preformed opinions and prejudices" and, Frank said, "quoted with approval an excerpt from an article in a law review which criticized the reports made by the SEC with respect to protective and reorganization committees."

"The context," Frank said, "is plainly such as to lead the reader to believe that the committee is asserting that SEC, in those reports, was acting in a biased manner."

He asked that the association strike from the report of the committee "those remarks, which cast a slur on the character of Chairman Douglas."

The resolution regarding Justice Black was presented by Edward T. Lee, dean of John Marshall Law School, Chicago.

He asked that the association petition the Supreme Court "to determine whether a member of its bar is not entitled to the presence on its bench of an individual who it is believed and asserted, sits there without constitutional authority, because of the provisions in the constitution providing that no senator or representative shall during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States which shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof, shall have been increased during such time."

The resolution was referred to committee.

Rajah of Sarawak Gives Baba "Fish Eye"

Hollywood, July 26 (AP)—Far away in London the "White Rajah" of Sarawak has turned a very cold shoulder on his youngest daughter, Mondee Princess Baba.

She said she is not a princess, but a plain wrestler's wife.

But Baba—Mrs. Bob Gregory—wondered aloud today if the rajah's feelings might change were he to know he is to become a grandfather in December.

Yes, we're going to be a threesome, Bob and I," she said. "Though I suppose it wouldn't make any difference to my family. I wasn't one to stay at home until a marriage with some mother-in-law was arranged. And I'm not one to weep into my pillow because they said I'm not a princess anymore."

Gregory had a word to add. "If she isn't a princess, what does that make the rajah?"

Wallkill Youth Gets Scholarship

The University of the State of New York, State Education Department, announced today that Frederick Philip Richter of Wallkill is this year's winner of the Cornell University Scholarship for Ulster county.

The examinations were held from June 29 to 31. The scholarships are awarded on the basis of one to each assembly district and entitles the holder to a reduction of $200 a year from regular tuition fees.

The exact place of the clambake has not been selected, but it will be in the vicinity of Poughkeepsie.

Preceding the bake will be a football game between the two Bar Associations. While fully appreciative of the fine spirit of cordiality which inspired this invitation the local Bar Association will graciously and determinedly seek to advance the 5 to 3 defeat administered by the boys from Dutchess at the Y. M. C. A. camp at Glen Elder last month.

Included in the local array of unhappy warriors will be the same talent that suffered defeat last month. Judge Harry E. Schrick maintains that since the local list is a month older and a month more experienced they cannot miss clicking in August.

The popery judge will be behind the plate to alternate the ex-pirate, Judge Culleton, and George the Great, Judge Kaufman. On first base will be that bulking stalwart of defense, Iron Man Andy Cook. The remainder of the lineup will be selected from the argumentative Van Haver, David Schoenlag, Jansen Fowler, Joe Forman, John Cashion, Matt Cahill, Bill Kelly, Tom Plunkett, Ray Mino, Jim Connelly, Vince Connelly, Peter Harp and George Rusk.

The chairman of the social committee of the Dutchess County Bar Association has requested the exact number of Ulsterites attending by August 1. To reciprocate their fine feeling of friendliness, reservations should be made immediately with Vincent G. Connelly, the secretary of the local association. Reservations may be mailed to 41 John street or telephoned at 3604.

Regional Representative Here
Today the local field office of the Social Security Board is being visited by Ralph P. Solitt, assistant regional representative. Mr. Solitt will confer with the local manager, John Form, in connection with claims procedure.

Connelly Acquits South Cairo Men On Still Charge

Charges against Herbert Tuohi Duncan and Herbert Francis Duncan, father and son, of South Cairo, who were arrested July 8 for possession and operation of an unlicensed still, were dismissed by U. S. Commissioner Arthur C. Connelly this morning, when the agent who made the arrest failed to appear.

The two were arrested in the town of Hunter, Greene County at a three-story former dwelling, house known as Upland Farm or the Cornells Large estate, which is a quarter of a mile northeast of the intersection on the Ontario road on the town highway.

A quantity of mash, 110 gallons of finished alcohol, 190 proof, and 75 gallons of 150 proof wine were seized by the agents.

The two had been under $500 bail each pending the hearing this morning. They were released by Commissioner Connelly when the agents failed to appear at 10 o'clock when the hearing was scheduled. Commissioner Connelly granted a motion of counsel for the defendants after it was apparent that the agents were not present. They came a half hour later, the Commissioner said.

Hart's Hearing
Put Off Today

Robert Hart of 177 Murray street, arrested on a warrant sworn out by his wife, who charged him with assault in the third degree, had his hearing adjourned to August 2 in police court, when the case came up for a hearing before Judge Cahill this morning.

Charles Austin, 18, of 39 O'Neil street, arrested on the charge of failing to produce a certificate of registration of the car he was driving and also with not having his operator's license with him, was discharged when he produced the necessary papers today in court.

George Mack of Beverly, N. J., and Elmer Luton and Joseph W. Price, both of Buffalo, who were arrested on charges of vagrancy, were given an opportunity of getting out of town.

Morris Berman, of 42 Wurts street, who was arrested on July 22, on a charge of passing a stop sign, was discharged when the case came up in police court Monday on the ground that the information was defective. He was represented by Attorney Chris J. Flanagan.

Enters Judgment
Riverhead, N. Y., July 26 (AP)—Suffolk county's first move toward confiscation of Camp Siegfried, pro-Nazi German-American retreat at Yaphank, was taken yesterday. Lindsay R. Henry, assistant district attorney, entered judgment against the German-American Settlement League, Inc., which operates the camp, to collect a $10,000 fine imposed for violation of the state civil rights law.

Three Men Held In Winship Case

Ponce, Puerto Rico, July 26 (AP)—Three men described as Nationalists were under arrest today and a fourth was sought for the attempted assassination of Major General Blanton Winship, governor of Puerto Rico.

Two Puerto Ricans, including Angel Esteban Antonglori, whom police listed among the assailants, were killed, and at least 31 hurt in a shooting affray following the need for a law to prohibit gun attack yesterday while the governor was reviewing a parade celebrating American occupation of Puerto Rico 40 years ago. Colonel Luis Iriazary, a National Guard officer, also was killed.

The arrest of Eliphaz Escobar was ordered. None of General Winship's official party was injured. The governor's only comment on the attack was "what poor shots they are!" Shortly afterwards he delivered an address, and was cheered.

The outbreak, he said, constituted another argument for capital punishment, legislation for which he has advocated for three years. He said it also showed the need for a law to prohibit gun attack yesterday while the governor was reviewing a parade celebrating American occupation of Puerto Rico 40 years ago. Colonel Luis Iriazary, a National Guard officer, also was killed.

Lineups for Cops' Game August 3 At Athletic Field

Lou Ambers Is Punishing Puncher

By HARRY MARKSON

Despite the fact that Lou Ambers is not known as a knockout puncher it is nevertheless true that the lightweight champion who risks his laurels against Harry Armstrong at the Polo Grounds on August 10 is one of the most effective punchers in boxing.

Ambers' record provides ample evidence of his prowess as a puncher—not in the number of knockout victories he has achieved but rather in the number of opponents who have wound up "on the shelf" after a session with the Hurricane.

Go way back to 1932 when Ambers was just beginning to get his bearings in metropolitan rings. Signed as "pushover" opponent by Phil Stark, one of the most promising youngsters around at the time, Ambers did so thorough a job on Stark that Phil retired, just when it appeared he was "going places."

Named No. 1 Challenger for the lightweight title in 1935 Ambers fought Harry Dubinsky, crack Chicago boxer, at Madison Square Garden to prove his right to the State Commission's designation. Lou won with plenty to spare. Dubinsky was never the same thereafter.

Shortly after the Dubinsky fight Ambers took on Sammy Felt, then an outstanding rival for premier honors on the 155-pound division. Again Lou meted out so much punishment that Felt never after figured as a title contender.

It is worth noting that Tony Canzoneri has never fought again since he was turned back by Ambers in a title bid 14 months ago, and Pedro Montañez, just a year ago the most feared lightweight in the business, dropped back into obscurity following his unsuccessful

Score cards for the Kingston-Newburgh police baseball game, August 3, at the Athletic Field, handed out to advertisers yesterday, give the lineups of the teams as follows:

Kingston—Keresman, 2b; Howard, cf; W. Leonard, ss; McGrane, 3b; Cramer, 1b; E. Leonard, 1b; Stewart, rf; Relrea, ss; Stoudt, p; Murphy, Bowers, utility.

Newburgh—Haight, 2b; Edwards, 1b; Foster, p; Corkedale, c; Presutti, 1b; O'Donnell, ss; Saunbury, cf; Weller, 3b; Baker, rf; Murphy and Statton, utility.

Lieut. James V. Simpson, boss of the Kingston Patrolmen, would not give out the lineup for publication, but an early grab on the score card by a sports writer put one over on the lieutenant, who probably will be waiting for him with a gas gun at headquarters.

"Tickets for the cops' game are selling rapidly, according to reports. "We should have a capacity crowd," said President William T. Roedel, of the P. B. A. Mayor C. J. Heiselman has promised extra bleachers for the game, and also that the field will be put in Class A condition.

Amateur Golfers

London, Ont., July 26 (AP)—Led by Trailer Bill Holt of Syracuse, a dozen United States golfers took off in the first round of the Canadian amateur championship over the London Hunt and Country Club course's rolling fairways today.

Named No. 1 Challenger for the lightweight title in 1935 Ambers fought Harry Dubinsky, crack Chicago boxer, at Madison Square Garden to prove his right to the State Commission's designation. Lou won with plenty to spare. Dubinsky was never the same thereafter.

AIRFRAME WINS AT SARATOGA OPENING

A. G. Vanderbilt's Airframe (inside) scamper, home to finish at 15-year-old track record in winning the opening day American Legion Handicap at Saratoga Springs, N. Y. Thanksgiving is second. The seven-furlong time was 1:23 1/5.

Looks Like Record At Saratoga Track

Saratoga Springs, July 26 (AP)—Saratoga is on its way to a record breaking meeting at least as far as track marks are concerned.

The 20-day meeting opened only yesterday but already one new track record and another stake mark are on the books.

Alfred G. Vanderbilt's Airframe established the track record when he ran seven furlongs in 1:23 1/5 to win the $2,000 American Legion Handicap. The time was two-fifths of a second faster than Milkmaid ran the distance in 1926.

Eighty-three well-named son of Philate-Dinner Time from George D. Widener's stable, ran the fastest five and a half furlongs in the history of the Flash Stakes for his third victory in as many starts. He was clocked in 1:05 1/5, the best time since Billy Kelly's 1:05 3/5 in 1916.

True to Saratoga reputation, the favorites had tough going. Not one of them won although Little Marty, winner of the Steeplechase, was the heavily played second choice at 8 to 7 as was Eight Thirty at 16 to 5. Airframe at 9 to 2 and Mrs. Payne Whitney's Hush at 4 to 1 in the opening event. Mrs. Whitney also put over the longest shot, Droway at 20 to 1 in six furlongs dash for fillies and mares.

John Allen was beaten 4-0, when Rooke Emerson Dickman of Boston came through with a three-blitz, but Mr. Harder evened things up to win 3-0.

Cleveland was doing right well when the deluge started. The Indians had beaten the Yankees in the opener of a "crucial" series and were confident they could take the league leaders and Boston as well. As it was they got an even break in 10 games in the east, better than any other western team except Chicago could do. But the three games at New York which they figured would put them on top again were rained out and they lost two of three to the Red Sox.

Van Deusen Irked, Wants Full Letter Given to the Public

To the Editor,
Kingston Daily Freeman
Dear Sir:

I see by Saturday's paper that I made the headlines, but in fairness to myself I believe that the letter I wrote to the education board should have been given in full, if it was to be used at all, and for that reason I give below a copy:

"For several years the residents living in the vicinity of School No. 2 have been fighting to have the school yard kept clear after school hours. In this they had been partially successful, and then within the past two weeks the school yard has been opened as a playground.

"After standing the racket of children at play for eight months in the year we believe that we are entitled to at least two months of peace, especially during the warmest months of the year, July and August.

"The city recreation department has received a written complaint but has not done anything, not even the courtesy of a reply. They are working, evidently, on the theory that even if those living in the vicinity of the school do object, what are their objections worth?

"Those who favor a playground in the school yard are those who do not live in the vicinity of the school, and are, the majority, a type of people who do not want children to play in front of their own homes.

"If it is so necessary to have a playground in that locality why not rope off a block on one of the streets, especially the block in which those who favor the playground reside?

"How long do you think they would stand it? That question requires no answer.

"With the school yard used for playground purposes we are awakened early in the morning to the strains of Farmer in the Dell until we wish the farmer resided in a much more warmer place than a dell. The noise finally ceases at 9 o'clock or later at night. Of course Farmer in the Dell is a song, but when trying to sleep on a hot morning it does not sound quite as agreeable as in more favorable circumstances.

"Then and in conclusion, why pick on School No. 2 for a playground. I have not heard of any other school grounds being so used. If we must stand a playground why not open playground centers in all of the school yards.

"What is fair for one vicinity is fair for another.

"Is it the purpose of the education board to subject those who live near a school to have to stand the racket all the year round, or may we look for peace at least two months out of the year?"

I might add Mr. Editor that oral complaint was first made and I was advised to write a written one which would be taken up by the building committee. That was my reason for writing the above letter.

Thanking you in advance for the courtesy of giving space to my letter, I am
Respectfully yours,
H. L. VAN DEUSEN.

(Editor's Note: The sentiments expressed in the above missive are the author's and the author's alone. The Freeman is in no manner concerned. The playgrounds of the city are heartily endorsed by The Freeman, whose fervent wish is that all the children of the city and county have a good time.)

Pinewood Concessionaire Ordered to Quit Resort

Pleading guilty to maintaining gambling devices, William Kramer, 49, of New York, a concessionaire at the Pinewood hotel, Flonshannans, was given a suspended sentence to Onondaga county penitentiary, Jamestown, Friday by Police Justice M. B. Halpern of Flonshannans. Kramer was ordered to leave the resort village by noon today or serve the sentence.

Kramer was one of two arrested at Flonshannans Tuesday by Sheriff Alton D. Bartlett, Under sheriff Fred Turner and deputy Harry Foldstein, 30, of New York, concessionaire at the Grand Hotel, where two pinball machines were seized and destroyed by the officers, pleaded guilty to operating them and was fined $200. Five machines discovered at the Pinewood allegedly were operated by Kramer.

Players of the devices, by scoring certain numbers, were paid off either in cash or in cigarettes and cigars, Sheriff Bartlett said. The arrests were the result of complaints lodged with District Attorney Gleason B. Speenburgh of Flonshannans by year-around merchants of that village who considered it unfair that the machines were operated at summer hotels while they were denied the privilege.

GOSPEL SINGERS MALE QUARTET

The Gospel Singers male quartet will sing tonight, all day tomorrow and Thursday and Friday nights, in the Free Methodist Church on Tremper avenue near O'Neil street.

The quartet will be a treat to all lovers of hymns and harmony. The quartet is from the seminary at Rochester and has sung in various states and principal cities in the east. The quartet has just returned from a singing tour through Florida and was greeted with good crowds of enthusiastic listeners in every place.

The quartet sang over the Newburgh station WCNY this morning at 11:30 for 15 minutes. Three of the pieces which they sang were, "Glorious Things of Thee Are Spoken," "I Am With You," and "Jesus Paid It All."

Among other songs and old hymns which they sing tonight and tomorrow will be, "My Jesus I Love Thee," "The Old Rugged Cross" by George Bennard, "Traveling Home," and "Jesus Savior" by Nabel Johnson.

Tonight the quartet will begin singing promptly at 7:30 o'clock and will continue with variations until 8 o'clock, at which time the quartet will sing at 8:15 and 8:45 in the afternoon. In the evening they will sing again between 7:30 and 8 o'clock. On Thursday and Friday nights the entire evening will be taken up by the Gospel Singers with speaking and singing. An offering will be taken to cover their expenses. There will be no charge for admittance to any of the services of song. The public is welcome.

Chinese Cook Has Personal Tragedy As Result of War

The far-reaching effects of war is a grim truth to Charlie Aw Slung, Chinese cook, who came to Kingston recently.

Charlie is now 48 years old and he knows the meaning of war in any country for he served as a cook on an American transport during the World War and he has traveled the high seas on many boats since leaving his native Shanghai in 1922.

A desire to do better for his family was his incentive, he says, for leaving the Orient and working in the merchant marine of many different countries.

Always, he said, he sent money back to those he left behind in China, and although he saw little of them, he knew they lived peacefully and happily until the recent Sino-Japanese outbreak. Charlie's family escaped harm in the earlier outbreaks, although they were in the immediate path of danger. He heard from them at intervals and knew they were safe.

Within the last few weeks Charlie has attempted twice to communicate with his family and each time his letters, containing money, were returned. Now he is convinced they have been victims of the Japanese invasion and he is fearful he will never hear from them again.

Charlie is now employed as cook at the King Crown Restaurant on Washington avenue. He will make other attempts to learn of the fate of his family, he said, but he has little hope now that they still are alive.

Jurors Take Ease

London, Ky., July 26 (AP).—Jurors in the Harlan anti-labor conspiracy trial lounged in their roped-off rooming house today as opposing counsel argued technical legal points in the case. Testimony was completed yesterday, the first day of the trial's 11th week, as federal officers "frisked" persons attending the trial for guns.

FLOODS HARASS NEW ENGLAND TOWN

This is the way the right-of-way of the New York, New Haven & Hartford Railroad looked at Millford, Mass., after an unprecedented summer flood, caused by a week's heavy rain, got in its work. Washing water undermined the ties and tilted the rails.

Democrats Launch Final Drive in Six Important Tests

Washington, July 26 (AP)—Democratic candidates in six states launched into their final campaigning this week before early-August primaries testing President's party leadership as well as their own vote-drawing power.

A week from today—August 2—primary elections will take place in Kansas, Missouri, Virginia and West Virginia. Two days later Tennessee Democrats will pick their candidates, and August 6 will come the bitterly contested Kentucky primary.

In no other intra-party race has the administration so large a stake in prestige as in Kentucky, where Senate Leader Aiken W. Barkley is opposed for renomination by Governor A. B. Chandler. But elsewhere issues have been drawn which may result in concrete indications of voter reaction to the President's recent plea for election of liberals over conservatives.

Mr. Roosevelt made a direct appeal in July for Barkley's renomination and reelection. His experience, he said, was needed in Washington.

Only national house members and state officials are up for nomination in the Virginias. In the eighth Virginia district much attention has been attracted by the campaign of William E. Dodd, Jr., son of the former ambassador to Germany, for the seat of Representative Howard W. Smith.

Dodd contends that Smith "let the President down" by opposing the wage-hour bill and various other administration measures.

In Missouri Senator Bennett Champ Clark, who hasn't by any means gone the whole way with Mr. Roosevelt, is up for renomination. His opponents include two men who call themselves "100 per cent New Dealers"—Willis H. Meredith, former speaker of the Missouri House, and Joseph T. Davis, St. Louis attorney. In Kansas, Senator George McGill, a staunch Roosevelt supporter, is seeking renomination. His only Democratic opponent, H. Dekker, died at the last minute. In Tennessee, the issue of race control of the Democratic party overshadows all other questions.

Boats Are "Shushed"

New York, July 26 (AP)—Believing steamers and tooting tugs are being "shushed" in New York city's "anti-noise" campaign. The appeal for a quieter waterfront was voiced by Mayor LaGuardia, leader of the move to save urban nerves by ending urban noise. The Maritime Association of the Port of New York backed the mayor yesterday by asking all steamship and tugboat skippers to skip unnecessary boat whistling while plying the harbor.
